Gathering of the People of God

Together

Who can take part?

The Saturday evening prayer vigil is open to everyone. Young adults from 18 to 35 are more than welcome to come to Rome from Friday 29 to Sunday 1 October, where they will be hosted by parishes and Christian communities. Adults over 35 can participate if they organise their own accommodation in Rome.

Let's journey together

- with leaders of the Christian Churches
- with the people of God in all its diversity
- with those on the margins of our societies
- with those who hear the cry of the earth
- with young adults from many countries
- with people of all generations
- with experts involved in various fields
- with all who are seeking a meaning to life
- and with you as well if you decide to join the adventure!

Young adults taking part in the whole weekend should arrive Friday afternoon. They should go directly to their host parish on arrival who will assign them their accommodation. On Friday and Sunday there will also be workshops and round tables for those who attend before or after Saturday.

Programme in Rome | Saturday 30 September

Workshops and round tables

After the breakfast in the host families and communities, participants will take part in workshops and round-tables on different themes in churches of different denominations and other places.

Praise and worship

After lunch, a time of praise and worship will be held in the basilica of St John Lateran. This will be followed by a walk to St Peter's Square through Rome.

Prayer vigil

This ecumenical prayer vigil open to everyone will take place on St Peter's Square in Rome. Pope Francis and representatives of different Churches will participate.
